

Sheep Judge

Matt Martin

Matt Martin is from Attica, OH. He has been married to his wife Stephanie for 29 years. He has 3 sons, Brock (and daughter-in-law Hannah) and Blake and Brett. He has 2 grandchildren. Matt grew up raising registered Cheviots, Dorsets and Market Lambs, exhibiting at the county, state and national levels. He owns and operates Martin Welding and Fabrication along with his son Blake where they specialize in custom livestock equipment. He helps his boys with their flocks of Dorsets, Hamps and Club Lambs. He helps his wife with her flock of Natural Colored Lincoln's and Cotswolds as well. He has been judging for 31 years and has judged County, State and National Shows coast to coast from Maryland to California.